Because its production will establish the difference

BEC, Bilbao Exhibition Centre, will become a showcase with an enormous exhibition area, where different theme areas will be promoted and singularity, creativity and spectacularity will be sought in the presentation of products and companies.

The different professional sectors will be concentrated at this first edition:

- Producers
- Denominations of origin
- Regulatory councils
- Canning industries
- Distributors
- Wholesalers
- True gastronomic leisure centres
- Franchises
- Gifts and hampers
- Suppliers of machinery, material and catering services.
- Etc.

Exclusively for professionals

Foccus Gastronómico will be a purely professional event, oriented basically towards the HORECA channel and quality products. In this case it is the professional response to the demand from the food sector, enabling an event with a high teaching content for specialists.

At the right place and time

Bilbao has always had a vocation and enough reasons to continue to be a gastronomic nerve centre. This undoubted appeal acts as the framework for exchanges of experiences to be cooked up, knowledge to be extended, the evolution of certain products to be discovered, the new technical and management trends in the different sectors to be approached and relationships with multiple suppliers and specification makers to be strengthened as Foccus Gastronómico 2007.

On the tastiest of conditions

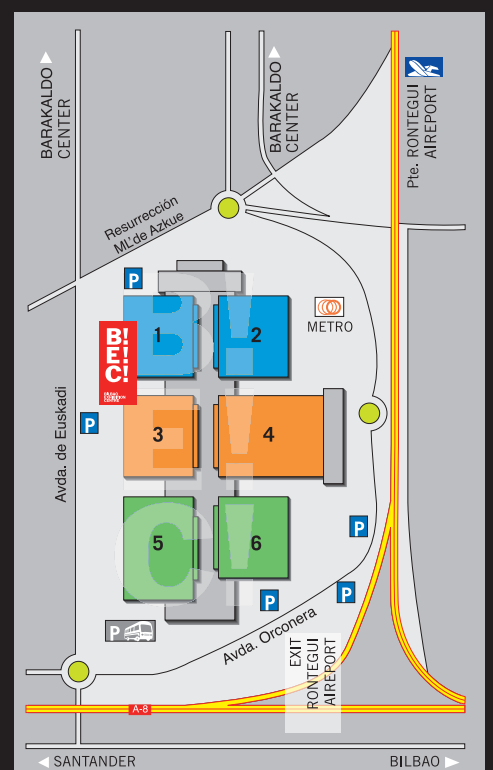

BEC, Bilbao Exhibition Centre, has prepared a wide range of options for exhibition surface area rental. Special conditions which will be the perfect ingredient for any company or professional to take part in Foccus Gastronómico 2007.

In an innovative showcase with an extraordinary professional impact and with all services within your reach, Bilbao Exhibition Centre, BEC is a new concept of a modern exhibition complex, comfortable and functional, designed as 150,000 m² of exhibition space in 6 column-free halls.

The exhibition complex has 4,000 parking spaces of its own, and there is a Metro station (Ansio) allowing the centre of Bilbao to be reached in just 15 minutes.
